SINGLE COLOR LED WHEEL WELL KIT

Warning: Please check you state and local laws before installing the kit. Every state has different policies and procedures for aftermarket accessories. LedGlow is not responsible for any fines that you may receive while using the underbody kit. This kit is for off road use only.

Warning: The installation of this kit is recommended to be installed by a licensed professional. The improper installation of this kit will void all warranties.

The Distribution Block must be installed in a dry location! Having this part exposed to water or the elements will cause the kit's controller to fail. Any water damage or corrosion to this part will VOID all warranties.

Please read the following instructions thoroughly before installing your kit.

1. Arrange the tubes out on the ground the way you plan to install them on the vehicle. Test the kit to ensure proper functionality before installing by going through all of the patterns.
2. Raise and support the vehicle if necessary. Remove the vehicles wheels if necessary.(This step is optional)
3. Start with the front left tube and mount it with plenty of clearance from heat and moving parts. It can be mounted in the top of the wheel well or on the side. The tube is flexible and can be contoured with the wheel well itself. Leave at least 10 inches between the exhaust and the tube. Also be sure to keep all the tubes away from any suspension parts. You can use the provided use wire ties to hold the tubes up in place.
4. Do the same with the remaining 3 tubes. It is very important to ensure that all of the wires do not come in contact with any heat or moving parts.
5. If the wheels were removed in step 2 please reinstall them in accordance to factory specifications.
6. After the tubes are installed, turn the wheel back and forth several times to ensure clearance. You do not want the tubes to touch the tire when the vehicle is turning.
7. Find a safe, secure, and dry position to mount the control box. We recommend mounting the control box inside the vehicle if possible and running the distributor cable through the firewall. If this is not possible then we suggest putting the box under the hood in the driest place available. The control box is not designed to be mounted under the hood and will void the warranty if it is not mounted inside the cabin of the vehicle. (It may be necessary to apply a coating of silicon on the seams of the box to seal it.)
8. Connect the red wire up to a 12 volt source. Be sure to only use a 14 or 16 gauge automotive grade wire if you need to extend the power wire. If you are running the wire to the battery it must go through the firewall by using an existing grommet or by drilling a hole and adding a new grommet which is available at any auto parts store. Be sure to install a fuse within 6 inches of the power source. (Fuse is not included if you have to extend the wires.) If you connect it up to a switched source then it may not remember the pattern it was last on. If you connect it up to a constant source it will remember the last pattern it was on. The kit will stay on until you turn it off. Do not run the wire through the door jam or the wire could be pinched and could create future problems. If you are running the wire to the fuse block, LEDGlow recommends that you install the wire using an "add a circuit" which is available online at www.LEDGLow.com or at any auto parts store as well.
9. Connect the black wire up to a good ground source under the dash at a main bracket or grounding block. If it is under the hood you can go directly to the battery or any engine ground.
10. Next, mount the junction cable on the firewall away from heat and in a dry location. The junction block must be mounted away from all weather conditions. Corrosion to the junction cable will void all warranties and may cause controller failure.
11. Starting with the rear wheel tubes, run the wires to the location of the distributor cable. Make sure to secure the wires tightly when going around any suspension parts and exhaust. When running the wires go up above the inner wheel well so that there is no chance of the wire falling onto the tire while driving. Leave at least 10 inches between the exhaust and the wires. Also be sure to keep all wires and tubes away from any suspension parts. If a wire is pinched, the kit may malfunction and could void the warranty. Route the wire along one of the sides of the vehicle and make sure to secure it tightly. Then run the front wheel tubes wires to the junction cable.
12. Once again make sure that the wire is not mounted to anything that is going to heat up or move. Any excess will have to be bound up and secured tightly.
13. Lower the vehicle if it was raised and test out your new kit.

14. With the vehicle on the ground, turn the steering wheel as far as it can go in both directions to ensure that there will be no tubes and or wires coming in contact with the tire as you are going down the road. If a tube or wire is damaged by the tire the warranty will be voided.
